Statement on Equal Opportunities

Temple Sowerby Village Hall is committed to implementing and promoting equal opportunities in its activities, services and practice. It realises that discrimination exists in society (whether protected by law or not), and believes that this prevents potential and ability from being realised in young people and others.

Temple Sowerby Village Hall will not tolerate discrimination based on:

- Race
- Colour
- Gender
- Sexual orientation or identity
- Ethnic or national origin
- Disability
- Partnership status or home responsibility
- HIV or AIDS status
- Age
- Political or religious belief
- Trade union activity
- Socio-economic background
- Refugee or asylum seeker status

As a provider of a service to the community, Temple Sowerby Village Hall accepts the responsibility to promote equal opportunities and challenge discrimination wherever it occurs. This document sets out the main consequences of this commitment and the action to be taken to achieve equal opportunities.

Temple Sowerby Village Hall recognises that some users of its services may, because of their past or present distress or illness, say or do things which would otherwise be unacceptable and incompatible with Temple Sowerby Village Hall Equal Opportunities Policy. Temple Sowerby Village Hall will do all it can to challenge such behaviour. In cases where intervention is possible a gentle approach will be adopted which aims to alter attitudes and behaviour while maintaining support for the distressed client.

Temple Sowerby Village Hall will exclude from use of the hall those individuals that actively work against the implementation of an equal opportunities policy over time, despite encouragement from Temple Sowerby Village Hall Committee.

Temple Sowerby Village Hall realises that a genuine commitment to equal opportunities must operate on all levels:

- Temple Sowerby Village Hall will prevent unfavourable treatment, directly or indirectly, upon individuals from any group facing discrimination in its recruitment and deployment of human resources. Where discrimination does occur, it will be dealt with through the agreed procedures. This will be achieved by following the Temple Sowerby Village Hall Equal Opportunities Policy.
- Temple Sowerby Village Hall will seek to prevent discrimination and ensure equal representation in the services it provides, the structures that it facilitates and the practice through which it carries out its work. This involves the development of greater diversity in the management committee, networks and membership, to ensure a genuinely wide representation.
